

Your Health Information Rights

This notice explains how we use and disclose your health information, along with your rights to access and control your data.

How We Use and Disclose Your Information

We may use and disclose your health information for the following purposes:

- Treatment: To provide you with medical care and services.
- Payment: To bill your insurance or a third-party payer for your healthcare.
- Healthcare Operations: To improve the quality of care, conduct research, and manage our operations.
- Other Permitted Uses: As required by law, for specific purposes like public health reporting or law enforcement requests.
- Communication: To remind you of appointments, assess your satisfaction, provide treatment alternatives, inform you about health-related benefits, participate in population health activities, conduct training programs, or report to Medicaid or CHIP eligibility databases.
- Business Associates: We may disclose your information to business associates who provide services on our behalf, such as radiology, laboratory testing, or copying. These associates are required by law to protect your health information.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Inspect and Copy: Review and obtain a copy of your medical records.
- Amend: Request corrections to inaccurate or incomplete information.
- Request Restrictions: Limit how we use or disclose your information.
- Request Confidential Communications: Ask us to communicate with you in a specific way.
- Receive a Paper Copy: Obtain a printed copy of this notice.

How to Exercise Your Rights

To exercise any of these rights, please contact the Facility Privacy Official at texasmobilemedic@gmail.com.

Changes to This Notice

We may update this notice. The most current version will be available on our website.

Complaints

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with the facility or the Department of Health and Human Services.

For More Information

Please contact the Facility Privacy Official at texasmobilemedic@gmail.com or call the clinic if you have any questions.